DISCOVER THE RECIPIENTS OF THE INAUGURAL COVETED AWARDS

During Maison et Objet 2017, Coveted Magazine launched for the first time ever a new ceremonial distinction dubbed as Coveted Awards, in a celebration of the most awe-inspiring and creative designs that were shown this year at the lifestyle event. The awards consisted of twenty-seven categories that register the most coveted achievements in the world of design, from consoles to dining chairs, to floor lamps, to armchairs, to wall mirrors, and the list goes on. Discover the very first recipients of the Coveted Award

MOST COVETED ARMCHAIR

The award for most coveted armchair goes to Ritz Paris Home Collection with this fabulously upholstered chair which serves as the epitome of luxury and comfort. "Ritz Paris is much more than a hotel, it's an atmosphere, an art de Vivre that allows itself the luxury of a timeless elegance, creativity, and eclecticism." – Alberto Vignatelli, CEO and Chairman of Luxury Living Group.

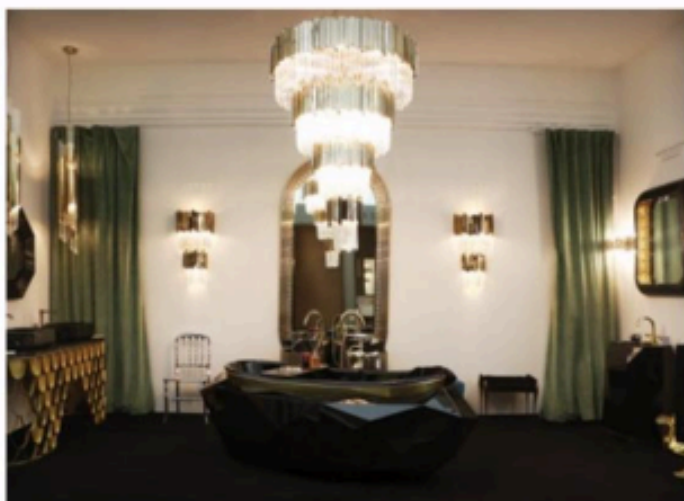

MOST COVETED SOFA

Boca do Lobo was acknowledged for Most Coveted Sofa for the classic Imperfecto Providing exquisite and emotive experiences, Boca do Lobo is driven by a desire of highlighting Portuguese culture and traditions in an array of jaw-dropping pieces.

MOST COVETED BAR CHAIR

Receiving the award for Most Coveted Bar Chair, Riluc masters the art of transforming metal creating high-quality and traditional designs.

MOST COVETED BATHROOM DESIGN

Due to this amazing Bathroom setting displayed at Maison et Objet, Maison Valentina was awarded Most Coveted Bathroom Design. The Brand produces pieces with the most cutting-edge technology and contemporary features.

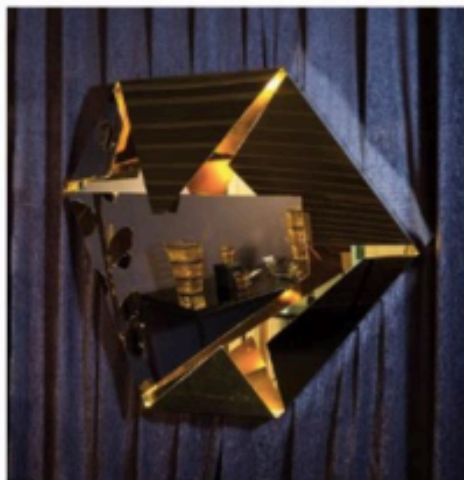

MOST COVETED DINING CHAIR

For the Most Coveted Dining Room Chair, the award went to Meridiani. Masterfully fusing traditional elements with contemporary details, the Italian brand creates a new concept of luxury and sophistication that seem natural and relaxed to the eye.

MOST COVETED DINING TABLE

The award for Most Coveted Award was given to De Castelli, founded in 2003 by Albino Celato, who masters the art of shaping iron like no other. The brand designs pieces that combine handcrafting tradition with the latest technological sources.

MOST COVETED MIRROR

A part of the Brass Ensemble Collection from Ghidini 1961, the aesthetically crafted Kaleidos Mirror designed by Campana Brothers was awarded the Most Coveted Mirror at the event. According to Fernando Campana, "the piece is composed of six hinged mirror blades. The brass base and gilded mirrors create a kaleidoscope of golden tones and reflections. The piece can be used as a lamp as it is backlit."

MOST COVETED DINING ROOM DESIGN

Fendi Casa was distinguished for this exceptional dining room design. Providing cosmopolitan and charismatic settings, the collection displays a wide variety of aesthetics from current to classic styles
